

INTERPRETING SERVICES QUICK GUIDE

Codex Global offers a comprehensive suite of interpreting services, ensuring seamless multilingual communication across diverse settings. From onsite to remote and AI-enabled solutions, we provide the expertise and technology to bridge language barriers effectively.

ONSITE INTERPRETING

Consecutive Interpreting: The interpreter speaks after the original speaker has finished.

Simultaneous Interpreting: The interpreter conveys the message in real-time.

Whispered/Liaison/Relay Interpreting: The interpreter translates directly to a small audience, or relays information between parties.

REMOTE & TELEPHONE

Remote Interpreting: Interpreting services delivered via video conferencing or other digital platforms.

Telephone Interpreting: Immediate interpreting services provided over the phone, connecting you with interpreters instantly.

AI-ENABLED INTERPRETING

Leveraging cutting-edge AI technology, Codex Global offers AI-enabled interpreting solutions for enhanced efficiency and scalability. This includes real-time translation and transcription services, suitable for various applications. Human interpreters remain available for seamless escalation when required.
